Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1-24 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. Regarding independent claim 1, the claimed unit for rewriting the expansion VLAN tag of the frame into an expansion VLAN tag of the transmission destination area is described in sufficient detail make/use the unit. The applicant has defined neither the "transmission destination area" nor the "transmission source area". Since the terms have no plain meaning and the specification merely recites the same language of the claim, it is impossible to determine what constitutes the claimed unit. Regarding independent claim 14, the claim is defective for the same reasons as stated in claim 1.

Art Unit: 2616

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35

U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding independent claims 1 and 14, the terms "transmission source area" and "transmission destination area" are neither terms of art nor are they defined sufficiently in the specification.
